Narrative:

On Thursday, December 11th, 2014, I responded to 300 Park Street Apt 3A to assist the (D.E.A.) Drug Enforcement Agency on an arrest warrant of Tasheen Davis, arrestee 1. Upon arrival, arrestee 1 answered the door and was placed under arrest by Agent Michael J. Guidetti. After entering the apartment, I observed a black male in his mid 30's in the bathroom which is located to the right of the entrance door. I approached the black male and asked him for his name and identification card. The black male stated his name was Parrish Keye. The black male stated "I need to get it in the bedroom". I followed Mr. Keye into the bedroom where he retrieved his wallet from the night stand located to the left of the bed. While waiting for Mr. Parrish to retrieve his identification card I detected a strong odor of marijuana. I confronted Mr. Parrish about the odor and he stated "I got some right here next to the bed". I ordered Mr. Parrish to retrieve the marijuana. Mr. Parrish reached under the bed and picked up one small clear zip lock style bag containing suspected marijuana. I ordered Mr. Parrish to hand over the marijuana along with his identification card which was New York Driver's License #310385352 Parrish, Keye T. D.O.B. [REDACTED] 1977. I asked Mr. Parrish who the marijuana and cigar belonged to in which he replied "It's mine". I advised Mr. Parrish, arrestee 2 that he was under arrest and placed him into handcuffs. I escorted arrestee 2 into the kitchen and sat him down while Agent Michael J. Guidetti carried on with his investigation.

While arrestee 2 was sitting down, it was brought to my attention by Detective William Inqlima that arrestee 2 actually went by the name Kim Williams D.O.B. [REDACTED] 1972. Arrestee was checked for open warrants under both identities which resulted negative. Arrestee 1 and arrestee 2 were transported to headquarters without incident. While in headquarters, arrestee 2 was brought to an interview room where he was read his miranda rights by Detective Demetrius Carroll. Detective William Inqlima and Detective Demetrius Carroll conducted an interview. After the interview Detective William Inqlima advised me that the New York Drivers License #310385352 was valid with fraudulent information.

The small zip lock style bag containing the suspected marijuana was placed into evidence bag #2842929 and put into the Narcotic Evidence Locker. The New York Driver's License #310385352 was placed into evidence bag 2842860 and put into locker 5.

Arrestee 1 was transported to the D.E.A.'s headquarters in New York, New York.

Arrestee 2 was charged with 2C:35-10A(4) and 2C:21-2.1c.

See Detective William Inqlima's supplemental report for additional information.
